3/1

then I doubt not, our Lord to provide, but God will blesse him with his holie Spirit, And I doubt not but he God of all truth will blesse them all, and send them his grace, and me in this world to come life everlastinge. And my Executor will his that is during his life I have appointed, that my sonne by all meanes shall make restitution to one ptiny, Lord have mercy upon me, Lord have mercy upon me, Lord have mercy upon me, written with myne own hande this Seventeenth of ffebruary, one thousande six hundrede twenty sixt. By me Nicholas Stoddard. These lynes ~~lynes~~ hereon wrote out made by my selfe, and by my direction done this Nine, and twentith day of ffebruary one thousande six hundrede thirtie ffour, By me Nicholas Stoddard, Cyles Worbley. Ben Gallandello, Richard Dolton. /. /.

Eodem die mensis Junii Anno Domini millesimo Sexcentesimo tricesimo sexto Emanavit Commissio Penelope Stoddard filie naturali, et Hiim Dni Nicholai Stoddard Militis defuncti habentis &c. Ad administrandum bona iura et credita dicti defuncti iuxta tenorem, et effectum testamenti ipsius defuncti, Eo quod Willimus Stoddard filius dicti defuncti, et Executor in hujusmodi testamento nominatus renuncia-vit onus, et animus fuit in ea parte iuste moventibus onera executoris dicti testamenti exercere commitiavit, prout ex actis liquet, de bene et fideliter administrando eadem ad sta dei Evangelia Juratus. /. Dodd /

Memorand: That William Chamberlayne in the monthe of ffebruary, In the yeare of our Lorde God accordinge to the computacion of the Church of Englande, One Thousande Sixe hundrede Thirtie fiive being in the goode ship called the Unicorne upon the Seae Sicke in body, but of good and perfect mynde and memory, and with an Intent to make his last will and testament nuncupative he spake these words, or the like in effect as followeth vizt. He gave unto Isaac Johnson of London, his brothers wife all his goodes wheat soever reall and personall both at Lande and Sea, except his wearing apparrell, wheire he bequeathed unto Robert Chamberlayne his brother. In the presence of Rowlande Butler Christopher Solomi and others. /

Nuncupativ: William Chamberlayne.

Vicesimo quarto die mensis Junij Anno Domini Millesimo Sexcentesimo Tricesimo sexto. Emanavit Commissio Isaah Johnson Principali Legatario nominato in Testamento dicti defuncti, Ad administrandum bona, iura, et credita ipsius defuncti, iuxta, et secundum tenorem et effectum Testamenti cuiusdem, Eo quod Executorem omnino nominavit Executorem &c. de bene et fideliter administrando eadem ad sta dei Evangelia Jurat. /. Dodd /

In the name of God Amen the two, and twentith daie of October. One Thousande Six hundrede Thirtie five I Edmunde Talbott of Blandfordforum in the Countie of Dorsett Mercer being sicke of bodie but of good and perfect memorie (praised be God) doe make, and ordeine this my last will, and Testament in manner, and forme followinge.
First my Soule I commende into the handes of Almightie God (trustinge to be saved onely by the merittes of his sonne, and my onely Savioure Christ Jesus) being fully assured by his death, and passion to have a full forgivenes of all my sinnes. My body
I committ unto the Earth from whence it came to be buried at such place as my Edmundi Talbott.

PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE
Reference:-
PROB 11/171
COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION

Executors hereafter named, shall think fitt being faithfully assured [illegible] my Body and Soule when the last trumpett shall blowe. Item I give unto the poore of the Parrish of Broadmayne, or the Towne of Blandford in either of which my body shalbe interred fortie shillings. And unto the Preacher twenty shillings. Item I give unto my Brother William Talbott my Bible, and to my Brother John Talbott all the Bookes that he shall think meete for his use. Item I give unto my Cosine Robert Napper of Plumtnoll the elder my sealed ringe. Item I give unto Matthew Peiges my kinsman that dwelles with me Tenn Pounde to be given for placeing of him to some honest tradesman. Item I give unto my kinsman Roger Stroud Tenn Pounde in regarde that it hath pleased God to take me away, before that he hath served out his time. All the rest, and singular of my goods chattells dattells, leases, debts due on bonde or billes, or on my Shopbookes, and all my wares in the Shoppe, and goods in my dwelling house as money and plate, and what goode soever I doe wholly give, and bequeate unto William Talbott my Brother sonne and unto Robert Napper of Plumtnoll the elder Esq. my kinsman, whome I constitute, and appointe to be my Executors of this my last will, and Testament in respect that both of them stande ingaged for me in sundrie summes of money, and in some of those bonde in which they are bound they stande as principalls, and noe mention made of me att all, in trust and confidence notwithstanding that after they have discharged, and disingaged themselves of those summes of money wch they stande ingaged for me, and have paid all other and singular my debts, allowed themselves of such charges wch they shall or may lay forth for me, that then all the Surplussage, and remainder of my estate shall goe, and remaine unto my beloved wife Edith Talbott, I have unto this my last will, and Testament annexed a Schedule of the severall bonde in which, they as principalls or Surreties doe stande ingaged for me as farre as I remember. Witnesse this my hand and seale the day, and yeare above written. Memorandum that these words (of my last will and Testament) between the two, and twentie, and three, and twentie lines were interlined before the sealing, and publishing thereof. p me Edmond Talbot, Sealed, and published in the p'ncte of us, Robert Hemmings, John Talbott, Richard Talbot, David Talbot.

A Note of such moneyes for which my brother William Talbott, and my Cosin Robert Napper the elder stande bound as principalls, and yet the money was wholly for my use.

1. Moneys taken upp for my owne use wherein my Cosine Robert Napper stande as principall, my brother William Talbott and my selfe as Surreties unto Thomas Pitt of Blandford, for in a bonde of Fower hundred pounde for the payment of Two hundred Pounde principall, to be paid about April the Fowrteenth one Thousande six hundred thirtie five.

2. My Cosen Robert Napper as principall with my Brother William Talbott and Mr. Steven Ward as Surreties stande bounde to young Mr. Eason for one hundred pounde for my owne use, wch is to be paid November the Ninth, one Thousande six hundred thirtie five.

3. My Master Mr. Henry Browne, and Mr. Lewis Coffaige stande bounde in a bonde of Fower hundred pounde for the payment of Two hundred pounde to Mr. Croplay Gilleman, Gaunsey the Haverdtesonne one Thousande six hundred Thirtie Fower for my use. My Cosine Robert Napper, Edward Warham and Steven Ward stande bounde to Mr Browne, and Mr. Coffaige to save them harmelesse, this Two hundred pounde was taken upp for my use.

1. My Brother William Talbott standeth principall, and my kinsmen Mr. Richard, Mr. Robert Hemmings as Surreties in a Bonde of Two hundred Pounde for the payment of one hundred pounde principall unto Captaine Hosking of Langdown Hereof money was for my use.

Reference:- PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE PROB 11/171
COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION

2 My Brother William Talbott stande as principall unto Mr Barnes of Dunticke in a Bonde of two hundrede pounde for the payment of one hundrede pounde principall, unto Mr Richarde, and Mr Robert Hemingse surityes.

3 My Brother William Talbott stande bounde for fifty pounde unto Richarde Swayne of Blandfordes ffoure Esquiers, to me Edmond Talbott sealede and published with the will likewise att the same tyme. Robert Hemynge, Joan Talbot, Richarde Talbot. Elioe Talbott.

Probatum fuit Testamentum suprascriptum una cum Schedula hujus: apud London coram venerabili viro Domino Henrico Marton milite Legum Doctore Curie Prerogative Cant: magro custode sive Commissario legitime constitut: Primo die mensis Junij Anno Dni millesimo Sexcentesimo trigesimo tercio Juramento Willelmi Talbott fratris dti defunct, et unius Executorum in hujus Testamento nominat cui commissa fuit administratio omnium et singulorum bonorum Jurium et Creditorum dicti defunct de bene, et fideliter administrando eadem ad sancta Dei Evangelia, coram Magro Roberto Bassett Clerico vicario Commissionis Juratus Roberto Clapper Armiger. Executore etiam in hujus Testamenti nominat: cui reservatis omnibus, et animo suo in ea parte iusto movent: onori Executionis dicti Testamenti expresse remoriam est ex parte Curie liquet.

In the name of God Amen I Stephen Mason of the Parrishe of Lambeth in the countie of Surrey Yeoman sick in body but strong in minde, prayse be God for it, doe make my last will and Testament in manner and forme following. Imprimis I bequeathe my soule to God my Creator trusting that by the merittes, and death of my Saviour Jesus Christ I shall have a blessed passage from this vaine, and troublesome worlde unto the everlasting Canaan, there to reigne with the Holy Saintes in glory. My Body I desire shoulde be decently interred in the churchyarde of Lambeth, and that att my Buriall, a funerall sermon bee preached according to the religious manner of our Church. My goodes (my funderall charges being payde) I bequeathe, and dispose of in forme, and manner following. Imprimis whereas there is due unto mee certaine money uppon, or about the value of fortie Pounde from Edwarde West as will appeare by bille bonde specialties obligations, or witnesses, part whereof William Bilton standes ingayede for, I freely give, and bequeathe all those moneyes due to me from the saide West, and Bilton to my Brother Edwarde Mason his children, to be equallie devided in iust portions to all, and every one of the saide Children indifferently. Item whereas my uncle James Howell owethe unto mee five Pounde upon a specialtie I give, and bequeathe unto the sayde James Howell, the one halfe thereof being fiftie shillings, and the other halfe I dispose of towardes the defraying of the charges of my funerall. Item whereas my kinsman Thomas Howell is indebted unto mee the sume of fiftie shillings as he acknowledgethe before the persons nexte and witnesses unto this my Testament, I bequeathe unto the saide Thomas Howell the one halfe thereof, viz: twenties, and five shillings, and the other halfe I dispose of towardes the defraying of the charges of my funerall. Item whereas Thomas Proctor by Specialtie owethe to mee three pounde, and three shillings, and Thomas Bowlde for moneyes lent out of my Purse owethe mee five shillings, I dispose of it towardes the defraying of the charges of my funerall. Item I give and bequeathe unto the poore of the parrishe of Lambeth to bee given unto-

Stephani Mason.

Reference:- PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE PROB 11/171
COPYRIGHT - NOT TO BE REPRODUCED PHOTOGRAPHICALLY WITHOUT PERMISSION